Where Will We Go From Here?
2018 and beyond

by Auriel Wyndham Livezey

£12.95

“Where Will We Go From Here? 2018 and beyond” recaps this author’s previous book “Three Gifts: The Eras of Science, Medicine, Religion” and picks up from where that book left off, as it tackled the mystery of the disappearing churches. Auriel thought there was no new era in sight when she published Three Gifts in 2014, so she was amazed when 2018 arrived with so many similarities to 1968 and with all the earmarks of a new era. This book is not presented as a novel as was Three Gifts but gives a very straightforward and rather surprising diagnosis of the new era. In this book, the author also pinpoints the dates of each previous era. The clues are all on the surface and anyone who enjoys solving a puzzle will be drawn to this one about our past, present and future.

Cracking The Camouflage Ceiling

by Chaplain (Colonel) Janet Yarlott Horton

Janet Horton was one of the first women chaplains in the US military. Men in the armed forces were not easily accepting women in the days of challenge and change in the 1970s. Some officers and enlisted men, even among the chaplaincy, refused to respect women chaplains. Both officers and men sometimes mocked, demeaned and threatened Horton in her work of comforting army personnel, uplifting morale and conducting Christian religious services.

Being in the small Christian Science denomination did not help things for this woman, who, unusually for a woman, prevailed and achieved the rank of colonel. This really is the story of how deep faith in the promises of the Gospel and the idea of unselfish service, patience, and smart and capable performance changed minds and hearts of many in the military. Pioneers often have to run races and climb hurdles; this is that story told in a winning and inspiring way.

The Ultimate Freedom

by John H Wyndham

This true, spiritual adventure story begins when the author is captured on the island of Java during the Second World War. The way he finds his freedom during his three years of captivity makes for inspiring reading. After the war the author takes the reader on further spiritual adventures to do with employment, income, economic freedom, and his work with the United Nations. The author later lectured worldwide, in four languages, on the subject of spiritual healing.
