Rest and Study at Springfield House

Located in the peaceful Monmouthshire countryside, Springfield House is the ideal location for spiritual refreshment.

Enjoy a three day Rest & Study break for just £150

Lorna has been studying Christian Science for over 50 years. She feels that by singing solos in Christian Science branch churches her singing/teaching career blossomed. She has been guest soloist in the Chapel at Principia, Edinburgh, Peterborough and Brighton (UK) Roodepoort and Johannesburg (South Africa) and many more branch churches during her travels. This reissued recording, was made in her home town of Harare, Zimbabwe, where she was soloist for over 4 decades and organist for 2 years, before leaving in 2016 to live in Windermere where she is now a member.

Secretary/Administrator required

The Christian Science Nursing Association (UK) (CSNA(UK))

encourages and supports the healing ministry of Christian Science nursing in the UK in accordance with The Manual of The Mother Church. We provide a forum for promoting and strengthening communication and mutual support among UK Christian Science nurses and Christian Science nursing services. Our website can be found at csnauk.org.uk

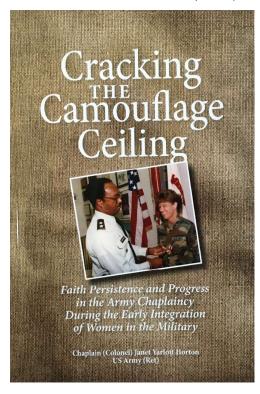

Our Board of Trustees, from different areas in the UK, meets usually monthly (occasionally less often) using zoom conferencing, which is very easy to use.

If you are interested in supporting this important work by taking on the paid role of Secretary/Administrator please contact us by email at: csnauk.info@gmail.com or contact the Chair (Sally Lessiter)

Cracking The Camouflage Ceiling

by Chaplain (Colonel) Janet Yarlott Horton

Janet Horton was one of the first women chaplains in the US military. Men in the armed forces were not easily accepting women in the days of challenge and change in the 1970s. Some officers and enlisted men, even among the chaplaincy, refused to respect women chaplains. Both officers and men sometimes mocked, demeaned and threatened Horton in her work of comforting army personnel, uplifting morale and conducting Christian religious services.

Being in the small Christian Science denomination did not help things for this woman, who, unusually for a woman, prevailed and achieved the rank of colonel. This really is the story of how deep faith in the promises of the Gospel and the idea of unselfish service, patience, and smart and capable performance changed minds and hearts of many in the military. Pioneers often have to run races and climb hurdles; this is that story told in a winning and inspiring way.

including The New Chickering Fund, The Ruston Bequest and The New Beechfield Fund

As trustees of the charities in the Morval group we administer funds which have been given over the years with the intention of blessing fellow Christian Scientists. Our desire is to find the right use for these funds and the best ways to help, and we are pleased to announce that we have broadened our remit.

We are now able to offer financial support to dedicated Christian Scientists in the following areas:

- help to enable you to stay in your own home (where appropriate)
- help with a move to more suitable accommodation
- help with one-off or ongoing financial difficulties
- help with travel to church and/or Christian Science Association meetings (where the Association is unable to provide assistance).

Each application is considered on its own merits and applicants should normally be in receipt of any State benefits to which they are entitled. In appropriate circumstances, support may be available in the form of an interest-free loan against property.

Application forms are available from:

Works hard plays hard

Mother Church Member, Brian Malambwe, from Zambia, in his second year at Principia, reading Chemical Engineering, shown here breaking records in the 200 and 400 metre relays, needs further assistance.

"This school year has come with lots of struggles and achievements"

A heavy work load combined with having to earn money to meet expenses means that Brian has planned a coping strategy. He feels the need to take extra tuition during summer break enabling him to balance the work load and master the increasingly difficult academic work.

The classes will cost $1,000

McNeil House

Rest and Study for Students of Christian Science Warmly welcoming guests since 1957

A tranquil setting

There are times when we all feel the need to make more space in our lives for private study and for the earnest prayer that brings peace of mind, inspiration and healing.

McNeil House provides a quiet haven, ideally suited for such prayerful study.

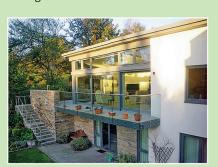

Who may use the house?

All students of Christian Science are most welcome, as are any family and friends who wish to accompany them, who may not be Christian Scientists but are willing to abide by the ethics of the house during their visit.

Day visitors are welcome to study in our quiet room or meet with friends in the lounge or garden. If meals are required, arrangements can be made in advance.

Long term residents

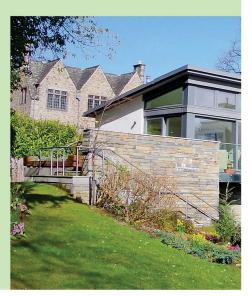

If you wish to stay at McNeil House on a long-term basis, please contact the Manager to discuss this further.

Our facilities

McNeil House offers four twin-bedded rooms, all with ensuite facilities and the downstairs rooms have doors opening onto the garden. The shared spaces include; a quiet room for prayer and study with a large selection of Christian Science resource books and literature, a light-filled and spacious lounge and dining room, a terrace patio with balcony and a large private garden. Parking is available within the grounds as well as free on-street parking. There is a lift and excellent wi-fi.

Edinburgh

McNeil House is just a short walk from a direct bus service into the heart of the city where the local Christian Science Church and Reading Room are located.

Transport to and from the Church can be arranged by request.

Beyond the Church and Reading Room, the historic capital city offers a wealth of culture and international festivals.

McNeil House is easily accessible by bus or taxi from both Waverley and Haymarket train stations and the airport.

Do get in touch with us.

Where Will We Go From Here? 2018 and beyond

by Auriel Wyndham Livezey

£12.95

"Where Will We Go From Here? 2018 and beyond" recaps this author's previous book "Three Gifts: The Eras of Science, Medicine, Religion" and picks up from where that book left off, as it tackled the mystery of the disappearing churches. Auriel thought there was no new era in sight when she published Three Gifts in 2014, so she was amazed when 2018 arrived with so many similarities to 1968 and with all the earmarks of a new era. This book is not presented as a novel as was Three Gifts but gives a very straightforward and rather surprising diagnosis of the new era. In this book, the author also pinpoints the dates of each previous era. The clues are all on the surface and anyone who enjoys solving a puzzle will be drawn to this one about our past, present and future.

The gripping and inspiring story of a 100-year old news organisation for which overcoming the odds for survival was only the beginning.

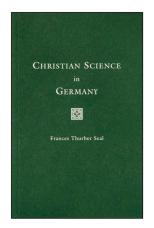

Absolutely required reading for everyone who loves The Christian Science Monitor. This wonderful book by Keith S. Collins, a more than 20 year veteran and contributor to the Monitor, is now available. A "one sitting read" by Bruce and he loved it.

£21.95

This moving narrative tells of the American school teacher who introduced Christian Science to several prominent Japanese families. The history follows the early days of Christian Science in Japan, through the hardships of the war years and beyond.

Frances Thurber Seal boarded a trans-Atlantic steamer for Europe to share Christian Science in Germany. Although she did not speak German, her healing work quickly stirred interest. This inspiring, first-person account is a perennial favourite.

CHURCH

What makes this Church I wondered?
What makes it stand so strong?
Is it the mass of numbers?
Is it the strength of song?
Or is it the foundation
Of Truth and Love Divine,
An ever-present standard
And rest for yours and mine?

CHURCH. The structure of Truth and Love; whatever rests upon and proceeds from divine Principle.

The Church is that institution, which affords proof of its utility and is found elevating the race, rousing the dormant understanding from material beliefs to the apprehension of spiritual ideas and the demonstration of divine Science, thereby casting out devils, or error, and healing the sick.

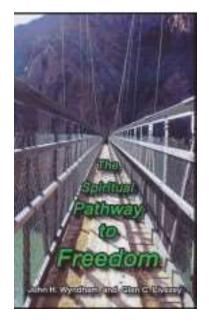

SH 583:12-19

Everything rests upon and proceed from divine Principle.....
