105

Dear Bulletin Readers,

We hope that Bulletin 105 doesn't take too long to reach you, as, at this point we are not sure when the printer will be open for business again.

In the meantime we are sending it out to all our email customers, in the hope that you will share this Bulletin with anyone you feel led to do.

This is a very different time for us all, but it provides us with special opportunities, and we are only too happy for you to contact us to ask about any products or adverts.

Our local Post Office is fully open, and just along the street, so we are easily able to get parcels to our customers!

Warm best wishes to you all ,

Bruce and Gina.

Cracking The Camouflage Ceiling

by Chaplain (Colonel) Janet Yarlott Horton

Janet Horton was one of the first women chaplains in the US military. Men in the armed forces were not easily accepting women in the days of challenge and change in the 1970s. Some officers and enlisted men, even among the chaplaincy, refused to respect women chaplains. Both officers and men sometimes mocked, demeaned and threatened Horton in her work of comforting army personnel, uplifting morale and conducting Christian religious services.

Being in the small Christian Science denomination did not help things for this woman, who, unusually for a woman, prevailed and achieved the rank of colonel. This really is the story of how deep faith in the promises of the Gospel and the idea of unselfish service, patience, and smart and capable performance changed minds and hearts of many in the military. Pioneers often have to run races and climb hurdles; this is that story told in a winning and inspiring way.

The Morval Foundation

including The New Chickering Fund, The Ruston Bequest and The New Beechfield Fund

As trustees of the charities in the Morval group we administer funds which have been given over the years with the intention of blessing fellow Christian Scientists. Our desire is to find the right use for these funds and the best ways to help, and we are pleased to announce that we have broadened our remit.

We are now able to offer financial support to dedicated Christian Scientists in the following areas:

- help to enable you to stay in your own home (where appropriate)
- help with a move to more suitable accommodation
- help with one-off or ongoing financial difficulties
- help with travel to church and/or Christian Science Association meetings (where the Association is unable to provide assistance).

Each application is considered on its own merits and applicants should normally be in receipt of any State benefits to which they are entitled. In appropriate circumstances, support may be available in the form of an interest-free loan against property.

Application forms are available from:

ComfortTEXT

BIBLE

Authorised (King James) Version

The finest translation of the English Bible for its accuracy and faithfulness to the divinely preserved biblical texts in the original languages.

The TBS Comfort Text is a fine text-only KJV at a fine price. The text is large and bold, making it very easy to read and preach from. The paper is extremely opaque and has so little show-through that I don't even notice it. It's taller than the average Bible, but it's thin and doesn't feel like a large Bible. The size might keep me from using it as a carry Bible, but it's a good choice for reading and preaching.

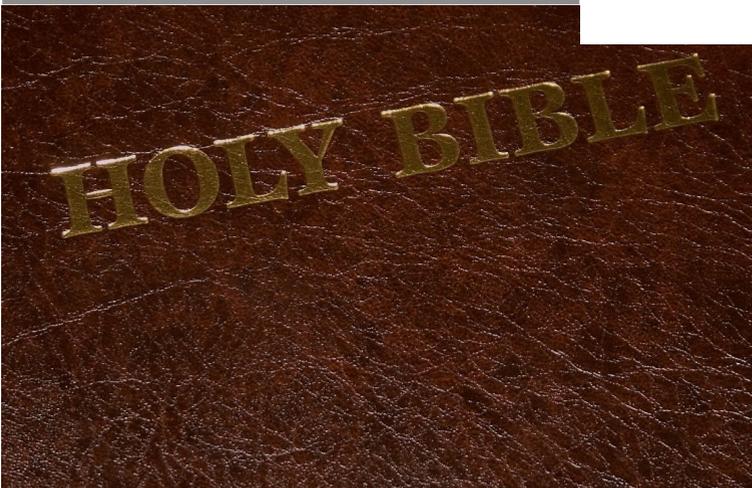

The paper is Bible paper, which is 33 gsm. This is some of the most opaque paper I've seen. I think it would be good for any kind of marking or highlighting. There aren't any pages for notes but you can write in the outer margins and in the footer

The Comfort Text is a hard cover edition that's covered in brown vinyl. The brown is about a medium-dark with gold lettering stamped into the cover and spine. The vinyl provides a nice grainy texture. I love the way it looks and feels. It's sewn and includes decorative head and tail bands.

The gripping and inspiring story of a 100-year old news organisation for which overcoming the odds for survival was only the beginning. Absolutely required reading for everyone who loves The Christian Science Monitor. This wonderful book by Keith S. Collins, a more than 20 year veteran and contributor to the Monitor, is now available. A “one sitting read” by Bruce and he loved it.

This moving narrative tells of the American school teacher who introduced Christian Science to several prominent Japanese families. The history follows the early days of Christian Science in Japan, through the hardships of the war years and beyond.

£10.95

Frances Thurber Seal boarded a trans-Atlantic steamer for Europe to share Christian Science in Germany. Although she did not speak German, her healing work quickly stirred interest. This inspiring, first-person account is a perennial favourite.

Physics Metaphysics and GOD

by Jack W. Geis

Throughout Part 1 of the book the author quotes from notables such as Eugene Wigner, John Wheeler, Deepak Chopra, Larry Dossey, Fred Wolf, Amit Goswami and Edward R. Close on the subject of basic quantum physics and philosophy. In varying degrees each believes that observation of quantum phenomena and resultant interpretations involve consciousness. That is, consciousness plays a significant, if not primary role in interpreting or even shaping reality, God.

Each ascribes to consciousness a mental nature, but not necessarily a wholly spiritual nature independent of matter, space-time. Here is where the author and the above-mentioned begin to "part company." The author believes that beyond the quantum and quantum phenomena lies the realm of Spirit

In Part II the author discusses the phenomena of spiritual healing, or healing by prayer. No other book on the market brings in the works of Christ Jesus in a book that discusses both physics and metaphysics in the way the author does. The author presents documented healings occurring in the present age through prayer to substantiate his claim for the presence of God (Mind) and the spiritual nature of man and the universe.

The Ultimate Freedom

by John H Windham

This true, spiritual adventure story begins when the author is captured on the island of Java during the Second World War. The way he finds his freedom during his three years of captivity makes for inspiring reading. After the war the author takes the reader on further spiritual adventures to do with employment, income, economic freedom, and his work with the United Nations. The author later lectured worldwide, in four languages, on the subject of spiritual healing.

GOD IS OUR FREEDOM

“And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” John 8: 32

The promise of our Master was really very clear,
Its message was to all of us, follow without fear,
He said “If ye continue”, - and that means every day:
To be his true disciple, his Word you must obey.

What is this truth that we shall know and which maketh free?
It is this fact: God made man, that He made you, made me!
Behold the beauty of this Truth, it isn't something strange:
Despite false evidence we see, Truth will never change!

So, with eternal Principle, Truth remains the same,
Man is God's creation in both nature and in name.
Jesus healed his thousands, and he never made them wait,
No need for convalescence, no need for empty plate!

He knew God's work was finished, he could expect no less,
It was merely false belief that thought the world a mess!
Should we believe in error, succumb to matter's threat?
NO! Turn to God, and know for sure He's the only bet!

Our Master showed to all the Love God has for man,
All fear is simply blown away: Spirit is Truth's fan!
Spirit's breath is Life itself: this truth it maketh free:
With open eyes and Truth at hand, in freedom you will be!

John 8:31,32

Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 (to:)

I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it:

Jeremiah 29:11

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.
