Bulletin

112

Dear Bulletin friends,

Happy New Year to you all ! The rooks that nest in the tall trees all around our square are beginning to gently "caw" in the mornings, heralding their trust that Spring is not too far away.

As always, we hope that you find much to interest and inspire you in this Bulletin, and we particularly want to draw your attention to the new book in our centrefold !!

Please remember that our full catalogue is available online, or by post on request.

Loving best wishes

Bruce and Gina.

The Story Of My Pilgrimage

by Emmy Elisabeth Austin

A member of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Bournemouth, who had known Emmy Austin and had her book, offered a copy to The Art Store so that we could make it available to the public once more. As it is now "in public domain" we are happy to do that.

This is a very personal story of a lady who trusted God absolutely. She started her pilgrimage after her introduction to Christian Science. She knew that God would always take her all the way and she never doubted His guidance.

There is much to inspire us all in this small book.

Charton Manor and The Visiting Christian Science Nurse Service, London Field – together providing Christian Science nursing care when you need it

We have Assisted Living residential care vacancies at competitive rates. Assisted Living is for those "in the advanced stages of their careers"*. Live in a community of independent Christian Scientists with all your daily needs taken care of: meals, laundry, cleaning, and a small amount of personal care, if needed. Our activities staff provide an optional programme of activities including occasional concerts, and regular trips, including to church and for garden centre afternoon teas.

*Message 01 29:5-6

We continue to provide:

- 24-hour light Christian Science nursing care under the tender care of Journal-listed Christian Science nurses;
- A time for retreat, prayer and renewal called Rest & Study at £400 for a week, full board, or £80 per day, full board.

We always welcome employment applications from Journal-listed and trainee Christian Science nurses.

Cracking The Camouflage Ceiling

by Chaplain (Colonel) Janet Yarlott Horton

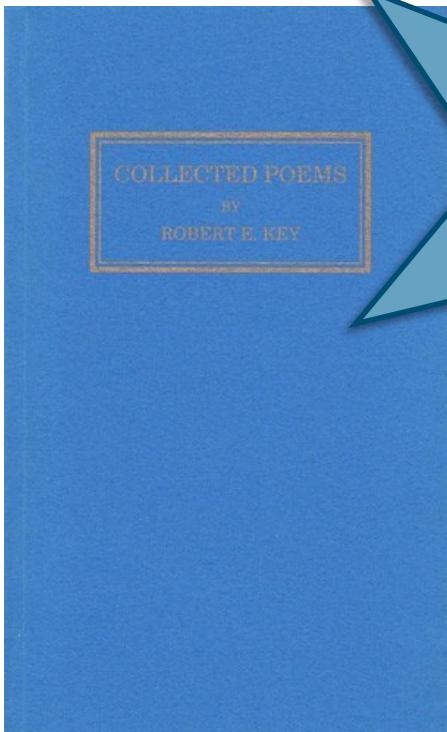

£21.95

Janet Horton was one of the first women chaplains in the US military. Men in the armed forces were not easily accepting women in the days of challenge and change in the 1970s. Some officers and enlisted men, even among the chaplaincy, refused to respect women chaplains. Both officers and men sometimes mocked, demeaned and threatened Horton in her work of comforting army personnel, uplifting morale and conducting Christian religious services.

Being in the small Christian Science denomination did not help things for this woman, who, unusually for a woman, prevailed and achieved the rank of colonel. This really is the story of how deep faith in the promises of the Gospel and the idea of unselfish service, patience, and smart and capable performance changed minds and hearts of many in the military. Pioneers often have to run races and climb hurdles; this is that story told in a winning and inspiring way.

Peter Henniker-Heaton

Man of Joy

By Kim Schuette

Peter Henniker-Heaton: Man of Joy. is a joy to read! Certainly the account of his healing of a form of paralysis of nearly 10 years standing through the steadfast study and application of Christian Science is impressive. Peter's story is engaging and inspiring for that and even more. (Hardback with colour illustrations)

£39.95

Picture yourself confined to a bed for nearly 10 years in a state of nearly total paralysis, while still maintain your joy and buoyancy! This was the situation Peter Henniker-Heaton found himself in during the early days of WW II in London. Throughout this trying time and beyond, Henniker-Heaton became a prolific author of poems, articles and essays-first for the iconic British magazine, Punch, and later for the Christian Science Monitor, Journal and Sentinel. His writings, many of them reprinted here, reveal his keen intellect, broad worldview, a natural curiosity and deep spiritual insight. In this book you will learn about this remarkable healing of paralysis, deemed incurable by British physicians, through his total reliance on Christian Science, and many of his thoughtful poems, smile at his appreciation of "all things slow," and share in his transforming spiritual journey. Through interviews with friends and coworkers, and through his own writing, Henniker-Heaton emerges as a profound thinker, outstanding writer and deeply interesting man. Someone we would all like to know.

Physics Metaphysics and GOD

by Jack W. Geis

Throughout Part I of the book the author quotes from notables such as Eugene Wigner, John Wheeler, Deepak Chopra, Larry Dossey, Fred Wolf, Amit Goswami and Edward R. Close on the subject of basic quantum physics and philosophy. In varying degrees each believes that observation of quantum phenomena and resultant interpretations involve consciousness. That is, consciousness plays a significant, if not primary role in interpreting or even shaping reality, God.

Each ascribes to consciousness a mental nature, but not necessarily a wholly spiritual nature independent of matter, space-time. Here is where the author and the above-mentioned begin to "part company." The author believes that beyond the quantum and quantum phenomena lies the realm of Spirit

In Part II the author discusses the phenomena of spiritual healing, or healing by prayer. No other book on the market brings in the works of Christ Jesus in a book that discusses both physics and metaphysics in the way the author does. The author presents documented healings occurring in the present age through prayer to substantiate his claim for the presence of God (Mind) and the spiritual nature of man and the universe.

The Morval Foundation

including The New Chickering Fund, The Ruston Bequest and The New Beechfield Fund

As trustees of the charities in the Morval group we administer funds which have been given over the years with the intention of blessing fellow Christian Scientists. Our desire is to find the right use for these funds and the best ways to help, and we are pleased to announce that we have broadened our remit.

We are now able to offer financial support to dedicated Christian Scientists in the following areas:

- help to enable you to stay in your own home (where appropriate)
- help with a move to more suitable accommodation
- help with one-off or ongoing financial difficulties
- help with travel to church and/or Christian Science Association meetings (where the Association is unable to provide assistance).

Each application is considered on its own merits and applicants should normally be in receipt of any State benefits to which they are entitled. In appropriate circumstances, support may be available in the form of an interest-free loan against property.

Q. uiet A.nswers

by Auriel Wyndham Livezey

From decades spent in the Christian Science practice, Auriel tackles many questions about answers - why we get them and why we don't. Subjects such as what happened to parenting in the '60s, and how the work at hand leads to employment, are accompanied by the whimsical illustrations of Hank Richter.
